UFO – unfinished object

This special class will be open to all Members in good standing in Alberta Women's Institutes; not just one entry per Branch. Any unfinished handicraft item in Section "A" thru to Section "G" that has been languishing in the closet or drawer for over three years. This article must be ready to use in whatever form participant desires. There must be a written history of why this piece was not finished (eg. Not happy with result, some circumstance in your life, job, children, etc.) submitted along with the item. No points will be awarded towards Branch standing. These will be judged based on the finished article along with the story.

Edna May Ridley Quilting Award

One plaque will be awarded to the quilt judged best in class D-1.

Myrtle (Olsen Roberts) Heyer Doily Award

Articles:

Tatted Doily 10" to 14" or 25 cm to 35 cm in size

Crochet Doily 14" to 30" or 35 cm to 60 cm in size

Knitted Doily 14" to 30" or 35 cm to 60 cm in size

Materials: Any type of Crochet Cotton

Technique: Tatting, Crocheting or Knitting

Prize: A plaque will be awarded to the first place doily in the class. The member who entered the winning doily will have her name engraved on the large plaque to be kept in the Provincial Office.

Judging Criteria:

1. One entry will be accepted from each member of each Branch and each Associate Member and Provincial Life Member who does not belong to a Branch.
2. Entries must be tagged with the official blue handicraft tags. On your tag, list this as the MORH class.
3. Notify the Provincial Handicraft Coordinator in writing at the same time as the Provincial Handicraft entry forms are sent in.
4. Entries must be the work of the exhibitor.
5. Entries must be checked out by the Provincial Handicraft Coordinator, before they can be removed from the display room.
6. All entries must be picked up by the person designated by the exhibitor's branch.
7. DO NOT MOUNT DOILIES.
